

Lysistratas Children Website Design and Development

Philip Suraci author and director of Lysistrata's Children, selected AVdrive for website design and development also creation of marketing collateral. In AVdrive's Good Works program AVdrive offers arts and non-profits for social good to get discounted professional internet strategy and website development. We are a proud member of the marketing team in helping to share an outstanding show of last season with a larger audience. Theater for the New City in New York City will present a return engagement of "Lysistrata's Children," a Brechtian comedy written and directed by Philip Suraci, from November 6 to 23, 2008. Get your tickets now at the Lysistrata's Children Website.

Inspired by Aristophanes, "Lysistrata's Children" is an original work conceived by Suraci and devised for and with the teenage cast. Like "The Me Nobody Knows" and Broadway's current "Spring Awakening," it is a play performed by young people for adults to see. It explores issues of war and peace, violence and non-violence through the power dynamics of child/parent relationships. AVdrive can help organizations with Brand Strategy , Printed Marketing Collateral, Website Design and Development , Open Source, Joomla Content Management Systems.

a2a_linkname="Lysistratas Children Website Design and Development";a2a_linkurl="http://www.avdrive.com/home/administrator/index2.php?option=com_content§ionid=0&task=edit&hidemainmenu=1&id=62";